This programme aims to give students the opportunity to practice the French language in a professional environment and to give them an insight into the professional world in France.

Content

Standard French Course 20 lessons - Minimum 4 weeks

The course focuses on learning the fundamental linguistic aspects: reading, writing, understanding, with a special attention to oral expression and phonetics.

Internship in a French company - 4 to 8 weeks

- ✓ Fields of activity: Tourism, hotel and catering, NGOs and humanitarian activities, marketing, sales, etc.
- ✓ Full-time or part-time internship depending on the availability of our partner companies
- ✓ Students make 3 choices in order of preference.

Interns will be expected to carry out predefined assignments and/or assist employees in their activities. Each internship will be supervised by a tutor responsible for the student's internship and will define the intern's duties. Internships are unpaid but companies may choose to contribute to the student's daily expenses.

Internship agreement:

Accent Français, the host company and the trainee will sign a tripartite agreement. Throughout the duration of this contract, the intern will keep his or her student status (student of Accent Français) knowing that the internship is part of his or her French language-learning programme.

Services included:

Needs analysis, search for an internship, placement in a company, organisation of interviews, follow-up and drafting of the internship agreement, delivery of an internship certificate
